Your Kingdom Come

by
Peter Manners-Smith,
Kärt & Tihomir Lazić

Verse 1

Before the dawning of creation
Was a dream of what could be:
A church for every tribe and nation
Fashioned in unity;
Built on the cornerstone of Christ
This precious mystery,
Once hid for many generations,
Revealed for all to see.

Refrain

Jesus, build your kingdom here,
Raise your church with hearts on fire!
Let your Spirit blaze within us
And your will on earth be done.
O may we see your kingdom come!

Verse 2

So may our every word and action
As we daily seek his face
Uncover lives of true devotion,
Hearts assured by his grace.
A church so captured by his love
And mercy running free,
That weaving through our human failings
His perfect plan we'll see.

Verse 3

Until that day of great rejoicing
When the Groom at last appears,
This bride will joyfully be waiting
As that moment draws near.
With faithful hearts and fearless love
We know our fate is sure;
This precious Lamb
that bought our pardon
Will hold us ever more!

Verse 4

Lord haste the day of your returning!
Break the dawn of heaven's day!
Reclaim your children for your glory,
Bring us home, Lord we pray.
Dispel the night and raise your sun
To shine for ever more
Upon this kingdom you established
Of sinners now restored.
