

Women's Ministries Leadership Training

On Sunday 10th of October a group of really motivated ladies got together in Riga, Latvia to study level 2 of Women's Ministries Leadership Certification. Under the leadership of Alla Nõmmik from the Baltic Union these trainings are being held each year to equip and train women for the local church and for using their God given talents to find ways to reach out to their communities.

The Women's Ministries Leadership Certification is a 4 level training which equips women in all areas of their lives. From the spiritual to the emotional to the every day.

We pray that God will continue to bless the work in Latvia.

Women's Ministries Leadership Training

Of all the Unions Sweden is the furthest when it comes to Women's Ministries Leadership Training. In the weekend of 23-25 October they finished level 3. Only one to go. This group of highly motivated women is an inspiration of how things can change when God becomes your guide. Many new ideas are coming out of this group. Ways to reach the community.

Sonja Kalmbach, leader of Women's Ministries for the Swedish Union, was unable to attend due to sickness. We continue to pray for her. But under the leadership of Lena Johansson the weekend could go ahead and we thank the Swedish Union for their support.

Many topics were discussed. Spiritual Gifts, Cultural Sensitivity (which is a hot item in Europe today), Personalities, Women of the New Testament, Quotes from Mrs White on women, and much, much more.

News from the Swedish Union of Churches Conference

The group from Gothenburg is very excited at the moment because of Mission to the City. This year alone they have had 17 baptisms and the church is on fire. Also the women who are enthusiastically looking for ways to spread the gospel. We look forward to next year when some of this group will be finishing and will be receiving their credits for the work they have been doing.

Women's Ministries Devotional Book

Do you long to experience the love of Jesus more deeply? Do you crave the blessed assurance of His presence?

Let the voices of these women enrich your understanding of what God's love looks like, sounds like, feels like, in everyday life. Then let these stories help empower you to live out, more purposefully, God's love in the lives of those whose paths you cross each day. All royalties from this book go to an international fund to help women gain a higher education.

Women's Study Bibles

General Conference Women's Ministries (GCWM) launched the first Seventh-day Adventist Women's Bible at Annual Council in October 2014. Co-produced by Editorial Safeliz of Spain and GC Women's Ministries, this NKJV Bible is available in English, French, and Spanish and four colour choices.

The Women's Bible is designed to appeal to women with its varied covers, design and font type, and exceptional beauty of full colour portraits of biblical women. The list of 28 Fundamental Beliefs of the Seventh-day Adventist Church and colourful Adventist prophecy charts are also included.

Special study materials—introductions to the sections and books of the Bible, biographies of women in the Bible, a series of Bible studies, lists of interesting facts and weddings in the Bible—are written by women scholars Jo Ann Davidson, Ph.D., Carla Gober, Ph.D., Elizabeth Talbot, Ph.D., and Hyveth B. Williams, D. Min.

GC Women's Ministries Director Heather-Dawn Small wrote "Being a Christian Mother in a Changing World," and GCWM Associate Director Raquel Arrais discussed Proverbs 31 in "Making a Difference in Today's Society." Women's Ministries Directors of the world divisions and other women contributed to more than 50 brief articles about virtues exhibited by women in the Bible.
