Market

Have you thought about what you will sell on the Market?
It will be our finishing program on Saturday evening.

The president of the Slovenian Conference has had a talk with the major of Rogaska and they have two projects which we can support with our Market funds. Everything we raise will be given to two families in need.

Now you can start thinking of things to sell at the market on Saturday evening and also maybe to start raising money at home for these projects.

As we plan it will be a fantastic closing event so please start thinking if you could do something funny on that evening.

Stay tuned! More newsletters will be following. You will find more workshops and information about the Conference.
